FLAMMORA

Almost a Century of Excellence and Family Values

Founded in 1928 as a small, family-run business, John J Doyle Ltd has grown into one of the UK and Ireland's most trusted names in chimney, flue, fireplace, and refractory solutions. Over 95 years later, we continue to uphold the same family values of quality, reliability, and exceptional client service that defined our beginnings, working with top-tier materials to deliver efficient, dependable installations.

As part of this legacy, HÔTA, a brand under John J Doyle, continues to innovate with the Flamora Electric Fireplace range. Our fireplaces combine over 70 years of design and manufacturing expertise, offering warm, cost-effective heating solutions to homes across the UK and Ireland.

At HÔTA, we prioritise quality and customer satisfaction, partnering with hand-picked dealers renowned for their fireplace knowledge and stellar service. Our trusted network will support you every step of the way—from choosing the perfect fireplace to installation and maintenance—ensuring a lifetime of warmth and comfort.
